

The U.S Ambassador Visits the ASE

October 17, 2016

The Chairman of the ASE Board of Directors Marwan Bataieneh received the US Ambassador to the Kingdom Alice Wells in the presence of the CEO of the ASE Nader Azar, and a number of the ASE employees. During the visit, they discussed the common subject of mutual interest in the economic field.

The CEO of the ASE Nader Azar briefed the delegation about the latest legislative, technical and quantitative developments achieved by the ASE in recent years and the current challenges facing the securities industry and its role in providing a stable and safe environment, with respect to the openness of the national economy to foreign investment.

The Chairman of the ASE Board of Directors Marwan Bataieneh, also praised the historical and political relations between the two countries; stressing on intensifying efforts by both parties at the government levels and the private sector to enhance bilateral cooperation in all aspects, urging on the U.S side to intensify its investments in Jordan.

The U.S Ambassador Alice Wells praised the ASE efforts and appreciated the strategic relations between the two countries, also mentioned her country's commitment to supporting Jordan in all areas and enhancing cooperation in the economic field in general and at the level of financial markets in particular.

